4. Manner of making the subscription.—(1) Every individual desirous of subscribing to the Fund under this Scheme for the first time, either in his own behalf or on behalf of a minor of whom he is the guardian, shall apply to the accounts office in Form A, or as near thereto as possible together with the amount of initial subscription, which should be in integral multiples of Rs. 5.

(2) On receipt of an application under sub-paragraph (1), the accounts office shall open an account in the name of the subscriber and issue a pass book to him, wherein all amounts of deposits, withdrawals, loans and repayment thereof together with interest due shall be entered over the signature of the accounts officer with the date stamp.

(3) Each subscription shall be evidenced by receipt issued in Form B or as near thereto as possible, by the accounts office.

(4) Every subscription shall be made in cash or by crossed cheque or draft or postal order in favour of the accounts office at the place at which that office is situated, and shall in the case of any cheque, draft or postal order, as the case may be, be drawn on a bank or post office at the said place.

8. Interest.—Interest at the rate, notified by the Central Government in the official gazette from time to time, shall be allowed for each calendar month on the lowest balance at credit of an account between the close of the fifth day and the end of the month and shall be credited to the account at the end of each year:

Provided that where the interest to be credited contains a part of a rupee, then, if such part is fifty paise or more, it shall be increased to one complete rupee, and if such part is less than fifty paise, it shall be ignored.

9. Withdrawal from the Fund.—(1) Any time after the expiry of five years from the end of the year in which the initial subscription was made, a subscriber may, if he so desires, apply in Form C or as near thereto as possible, together with his pass book to the accounts office for withdrawing from the balance to his credit, an amount not exceeding fifty percent of the amount that stood to his credit at the end of the sixth year immediately preceding the year of withdrawal, less the amount of loan, if any, drawn by him under paragraph 10 and which remains to be repaid:

Provided that the interval between any two withdrawals shall not be less than 3 years.

(2) On receipt of an application under sub-paragraph (1) the accounts office may, after satisfying itself that the amount of withdrawal applied for is not in excess of the limit prescribed in sub-paragraph (1), subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (4) permit the withdrawal and enter the amount withdrawn in the pass book.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-paragraph (1), any time after the expiry of 15 years from the end of the year in which the initial subscription was made by him, a subscriber may, if he so desires, apply in Form C or as near thereto as possible together with his pass book to the accounts office for the withdrawal of the entire balance standing to his credit and the accounts office, on receipt of such an application from the subscriber, shall subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (4) allow the withdrawal of the entire balance (together with interest upto the last day of the month preceding the month in which the application for withdrawal is made) after making adjustments, if any, in respect of any interest due from the subscriber on loans taken by him and close his account.

(4) Where the application is made by a person who has made subscriptions to the Fund on behalf of a minor of whom he is a guardian, he shall furnish a certificate in the following form, namely:—

“Certified, that the amount sought to be withdrawn is required for the use of , who is alive and is still a minor.”

10. The repayment may be made either in one lump sum or in two or more monthly instalments within the prescribed period of twenty-four months. The repayment will be credited to the subscriber's account.

(2) After the principal of the loan is fully repaid, the subscriber shall pay interest thereon in not more than two monthly instalments at the rate of two percent of the principal per annum for the period commencing from the first day of the month following the month in which the loan is drawn unto the last day of the month in which the last instalment of the loan is repaid;

Provided that where the loan is not repaid or is repaid only in part within the prescribed period of twenty-four months, interest on the amount of loan outstanding shall be charged at six percent per annum instead of at two percent per annum from the first day of the month following the month in which the loan was obtained to the last day of the month in which the loan is finally repaid.

(3) The interest or any portion of interest on any loan under the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) may, on becoming due, be debited to the subscriber's account.

(4) Every nomination and every cancellation or variation thereof shall be registered in the accounts office and shall be effective from the date of such registration, the particulars of which shall be entered in the pass book.

(5) If the nominee is a minor, the subscriber may appoint any person to receive the amount due under the account in the event of the death of the subscriber during the minority of the nominee.
